

Qimonda at a Glance – North America

Market Position

- World leading DRAM company
- No. 1 in low power trench-technology
- Top in 300mm manufacturing: More than 80% of the DRAM bits shipped are manufactured on 300mm

Employees

- About 13,500 employees worldwide
- About 3,000 employees work in North America

Financials

- 3.81 billion EUR net sales in FY 2006
- 38 percent of Qimonda's revenues derived in North America, 31 percent in Asia Pacific, 20 percent in Europe, 9 percent in Japan and 1 percent in other regions (Q1 FY 2007)

Research and Development

- About 2,500 employees in R&D with more than 1,100 engineers in product development
- Six major R&D facilities worldwide: Munich, Dresden (Germany), Padua (Italy), Raleigh, Burlington (US) and Xi'an (China)

Locations of Qimonda North America

- Cary (N.C.): Regional Headquarter; Administration and Raleigh Development Center: Central Functions and R&D in Computing and Graphics
- San Jose (CA): Sales & Marketing
- Richmond (VA): Production Site: 200mm and 300mm front-end manufacturing
- Burlington (VT): Sunrise Development Center: R&D for low-power memory